

This will help the athletes have healthier weight loss and better weight loss programs, which is what the weight certification tests are for anyway.

In conclusion, wrestling is an excellent sport. Wrestling is the hardest sport but it has the greatest reward. It is hard to improve something that is already very good. With a couple tweaks, though, wrestling could be even greater.