Earn a $2,500 scholarship!

Requirements

1. Be a high school student
2. Participate on a sports team covered by MaxPreps
3. Submit an entry

MaxPreps has just launched the Citizen Athlete Program presented by the Army National Guard. This program will award $25,000 to high school student-athletes who are model citizens in all areas of life: community service, academics, athletics and school involvement.

MaxPreps and the Army National Guard have joined forces to make sure these great young citizens are recognized and rewarded for their good work by awarding $2,500 scholarships to each of the top five young men and top five young women in the country. Anybody can nominate any 2009-10 athlete on MaxPreps.

Entries must be submitted before March 12, 2010. You may submit as many entries as you like. Winners will be posted on April 1, 2010.
