

Week 3

Games of the Week

West Catholic at LaSalle – It's a good thing I had this game listed as one of my top games of week 3, because the 2006 PCL Blue Champ showed the Explorers from LaSalle, the 2006 Red Division champ, that the Blue teams should be taken seriously. The Burrs beat the Explorers by 24-14, handing LaSalle their second straight loss of the early season.

Wood at Ryan – For the second straight year, Archbishop Ryan beat Archbishop Wood, the Blue Division runner up team from 2006, by a score of 28-25. Both teams are now 2-1 as they enter the regular season.

Roman at Tennent – Roman Catholic, one of the top teams in Philadelphia, traveled up to Bucks County to take on District 1 team, William Tennent. Roman put a hurting on Tennent by a score of 40-10. Roman was led, once again, by Balial Lewis Sloan-EL, who leads the city in rushing with 665 yards in just 3 games. His 187 yards against Tennent was the first time in three tries that Lewis Sloan-EL failed to gain 200 or more yards.

Fitzsimons at Furness – Well, I predicted a 0-0 game here, but only one team was shut out as Fitzsimons won in a battle of the new schools for their first win in team history.

Other Games to See

O'Hara at Don Bosco – O'Hara was not ready for this one, as Don Bosco pounded them 56-7. Trying hard to follow St Joe's Prep in the big league games, O'Hara proved that they need more work before taking on the national powers.

Dougherty at Frankford – Frankford beat Dougherty 25-0. Ray Capriotti, brother of Frankford coach, Mike Capriotti, and former Dougherty player, flipped the coin to start the game. Frankford recovers from their week 2 loss to Pennsbury to even their record at 1-1.
