

Week 7 - Summary Games of the Week

Judge 14 - Roman 7 – Picking this game as my game of the week seems to have been right on target. Roman came into this game with a 6-0 record and Judge started the day at 5-1, with their only loss coming at the hands of St Joe Prep. But, in that loss, Judge was without their starting QB, Paul Volpe and their star RB, Andrew McHale had to fill in at QB. But, this game, Volpe was back and went 8-14 for 68 yards and one touchdown, while McHale had 35 carries for 168 yards. But, the real star of this game was the Father Judge defense, which limited Roman's star running back, Bilial Lewis-Stone EL to just 41 yards as Roman had trouble figuring out a way to score on the Judge defense.

Washington 43 – Central 15 – As I stated in the Week 7 Preview, there really weren't many good games this week. This 43-15 thumping of Central by Washington was the biggest game in the PPL this week, and even it was sort of a let down.

Other Games to See

Conwell-Egan 31 - Dougherty 27 – Well, if you had to pick another game of the week, this one was it. Even though both of these teams are fighting to stay out of the Blue division basement, they played each other at about the same level, with Conwell-Egan registering their first win of the season over Cardinal Dougherty. Ironically, Dougherty has lost over 40 straight games against PCL opponents not named Kennedy-Kenrick, with their last PCL non-Kenrick win coming in the 2000 season when they beat the Pre-Steve Slaton Eagles of Conwell-Egan 34-13
